REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

In interpreting the claims in light of the specification and applicant's arguments, the Examiner finds the claimed invention is patentably distinct from the prior art of record.

The prior art of record include Gile et al. (Gile), US Patent Number 6,317,779 and Gardell et al. (Gardell), US Patent Number 6,049,831.

Gile discloses in Abstract and col. 3, lines 10-27 that user customized profile such as selected services, order, and desired ready time, and a user selects a number and order of available service desired such as the evening news, stock quotes, and entertainment news and theses information will be automatically downloaded from the web site per the user-specified schedule.

Gardell discloses a user accesses a network from several devices such as computer, television, etc... to request for network information (Abstract, col. 6, line 50 – col. 8, line 19).

Claim 1 is allowed because the prior art of record does not expressly discloses alone or in combination "providing for a user profile, wherein the user profile defines a schedule of two or more information requests, each information request having a corresponding destination, including a first information request having a corresponding first destination and a second information request having a corresponding second destination different from the first destination.”

Examiner finds the argument on page 9 of the brief to be persuasive since Appellant argued that modifying Gile to deliver sets of information to different destinations would defeat Gile’s purpose of providing a CD at a scheduled time. In addition, the examiner finds Appellant’s arguments “even if one were to modify Gile with Gardell, the claim would not be obvious” to be persuasive as well. Further, on page 10 of the brief, Appellant argued “Gardell suggests nothing at all regarding specifying, for an information request, the destination for delivery of information obtained in response to the request, Gardell teaches only that the destination for delivery of the information obtained in response to a request is the Internet access device from which the request was sent”, which examiner also finds to be persuasive.

2. Claims 2-6 and 8-12 further limit independent claim 1. Claims 13-18 and 20-24 are considered allowable for the same reasons set forth for claims 1-6 and 8-12.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the Issue Fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
